Perspectives on Language Development

Workshop organised by the Language Acquisition and Language Processing Lab group, NTNU with support from EU, MSC Programme & Department of Language & Literature

March 1st, 2016, D152 (Dragvoll campus)

9.00 Welcome – Mila Vulchanova (organizing committee) & Gøril Thomassen (Language group leader, Department of Language & Literature, Faculty of Humanities coordinator for NTNU Strategic Research Area Health)

9.15 – Angelo Cangelosi (Plymouth University) Developmental Robotics for Embodied Language Learning

10.00 – Coffee break

10.15 – Melissa Allen (Lancaster University) Symbolic Understanding and Word Learning in Children with Autism Spectrum Disorder

11.00 – Kate Cain (Lancaster University) From words to text: the emergent structure of language during early development

Organisers: Julie Feilberg, Mila Vulchanova, Giosue Baggio & Valentin Vulchanov with the interdisciplinary group on Language Development in the Digital Age, NTNU (Torbjørn Svendsen, Ingunn Hagen, Letizia Jaccheri and Björn Gambäck)