

Valuing the past, sustaining the future

– Program for second international seminar

Time: 22th–24th Sept 2017

Place: Nicosia, Cyprus

Accommodation:

Participants: Research group:

Professor Dympna Devine, University College Dublin

PhD student Aoife Crummy, University College Dublin

Associate Professor Firouz Gaini, The University of the Faroe Islands

Professor Spyros Spyrou, European University Cyprus

Associate Professor Eleni Theodorou, European University Cyprus

PhD Student, Nayia Stylianidou, European University Cyprus

Associate Professor Sharon Bessell, Australian National University

Professor Nina Volckmar, NTNU,

Dosent/Professor Mette Bunting, University College of South East Norway,

Professor Anne Trine Kjørholt, NTNU,

PhD student Inger Toppen Pedersen, NTNU

PhD Student, Christopher Messelt, NTNU

Advisory Board: Professor Emerita An-Magritt Jensen, NTNU, Professor Ellen Schrumpf, Professor Helen Penn

Local organizers: Professor Spyros Spyrou and Ass Professor Eleni Theodorou

Friday 22th Sept

Place: European University Cyprus, Room 102

09.00-09.30 Welcome to the workshop by Spyros and Eleni

Welcome by the Rector of the European University Cyprus, Prof. Kostas Gouliamos

Aims and scope of seminar, Practicalities

Spyros and Anne Trine.

- 09.30-11.00 Life biographies across three generations in coastal communities; experiences from 1 round interviews in Cyprus: Spyros and Eleni
Discussion
- 11.00-11.30 Coffee break
- 11.30-13.00 Life biographies across three generations in coastal communities; experiences from 1 round interviews in Faroe Island: Firouz
Discussion
- 13.00-14.00 Lunch
- 14.00-15.30 Life biographies across three generations in coastal communities; experiences from 1 round interviews in Australia: Sharon
Discussion
- 15.30-17.00 Life biographies across three generations in coastal communities; experiences from 1 round interviews in Ireland: Dymrna and Aoife
Discussion
- 17.00-18.30 Life biographies across three generations in coastal communities; experiences from 1 round interviews in Norway: Mette and Anne Trine
Discussion
- 20.00 Dinner

Saturday 23th Sept

Place: European University Cyprus, Room 102

- 09.00-10.00 Follow up discussion from yesterday's presentations.
Data collection, round 2 and 3
- 10.00-10.40 Formal education and curricula 1945- present; Scopes and challenges, Nina
Discussion

10.40-11.00	Coffee break
11.00-11.20	Practical knowledge across three generations in Norwegian fishermen families at Vega: Presentation of master's thesis by Inger
11.20-11.50	Plans for case study of sea samii population in Northern Norway. Context and status of knowledge research, Inger
11.50-12.30	Discussion – including comparison with indigenous people Australia
12.30- 13.30	Lunch
13.30- 15.00	Theoretical perspectives, WP 2, 3,4,5, Anne Trine in collaboration with the different WP-leaders
15.00-15.15	Coffee break
15.15- 16.00	Analysis, design, including data-collection/fieldwork, field-sites, sampling, analysis, NVivo, relevant literature etc)
16.00- 17.30	Further development of the project, aims, organization, future plans and activities, revise the Ghant sheet, progress. Seminars (dates and locations) Discussion
19.00- 20.00	Optional walking tour of the old part of Nicosia with Spyros and Eleni
20.00	Dinner

Sunday 24th Sept

Place: European University Cyprus, Room 102

08.30-10.00	Publications, conferences Participation in conferences and seminars
10.00-11.30	Concluding discussions
12.00-13.00	Lunch Departure