

NSO OIKOS 2018

NORDIC SOCIETY OIKOS
Bringing Nordic ecologists together

19-22 February Trondheim, Norway

In 2018, the Nordic Oikos conference will be held in Trondheim, Norway, Tuesday 20. – Thursday 22 February with a pre-conference thematic symposium on Monday 19 February.

www.ntnu.edu/web/oikos2018

Nordic Society Oikos' mission is to "to support scientific research in ecology and related disciplines and to stimulate and enhance communication between stakeholders in ecological research in the Nordic countries and beyond."

The theme of the Nordic OIKOS conference in 2018 is "The importance of ecological science in society", with a solid focus on the need for fundamental ecological science.

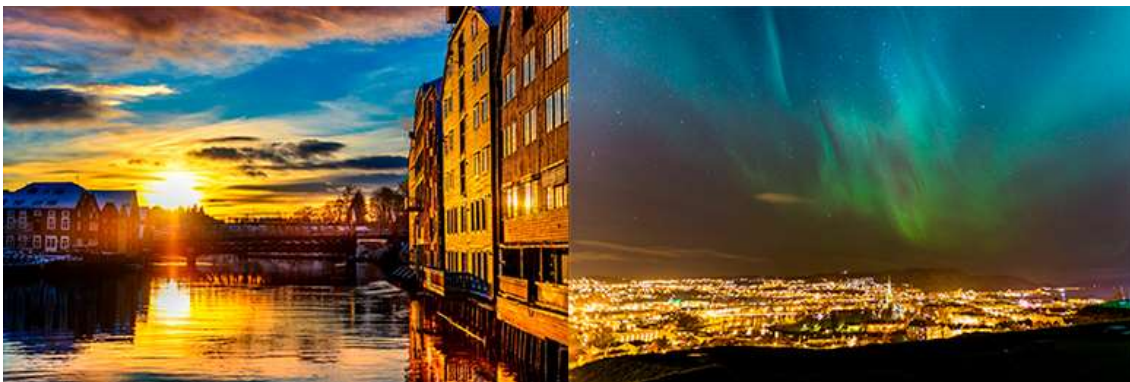

Our aim is to bring together:

- the Nordic countries
- different ecological disciplines
- ecological science and society

Keynote Speakers:

- Professor Georgina Mace
- Professor David Wardle
- Professor William Sutherland
- Professor Trine Bilde

Welcome to Trondheim!

Views from Trondheim - Photos from left: morenourl/visitnorway.com, Sven-Erik Knoff/visitnorway.com"

Organizing committee:

Gunilla Rosenqvist (gunilla.rosenqvist@ntnu.no)

Irja Ratikainen (irja.i.ratikainen@ntnu.no)

Thomas Kvalnes (thomas.kvalnes@ntnu.no)

