There have been amateur theatre groups at Nesna for at least thirty years, for the last fifteen years under the name Teaterzahl. Our vision is to be open for everyone who wants to take part in our projects and we pride ourselves in the diversity among our group. In Teaterzahl we have amateur actors of every age, shape and form. Whether or not it comes to disabilities, different languages, or other challenges, they are all welcome.

Teaterzahl gives performances every year, the Christmas play is a tradition. During the spring we offer children theatre workshops in acting and improvisation.
