Trondheim International School¹ is an International Baccalaureate school in Trondheim established in 2004. The school has 220 students in the 1st to 10th grade from around 40 countries. The school has a great location close to the city centre, next to an open park and wooded area at Festningen.

Emma teaches English and humanities in grades 7 and 8 and has experience teaching in state and international schools in Trondheim, Oslo and the UK. As an IB school, we focus on enquiry-based learning and supporting students to make connections to what they learn in the classroom with the world around them. CoastARTS project is part of a unit of study in grade 8 humanities on the interaction between humans and the natural world.
