

ENJOYMENT OF LIFE AND COPING WITH LIFE THROUGH DRAMA, MUSIC, HANDCRAFTS, GOOD FOOD AND PHYSICAL ACTIVITY

Leangen Kulturbarnehage is a co-operative enterprise, owned by the parents who have their children in the kindergarten at any given time. Our specially adapted building is located in beautiful surroundings at the Leangen sports complex.

Here are 62 children playing, learning and developing together with a good team of 16 kindergarten teachers and assistants with complementary fields of expertise, gender and age.

Both employees and surroundings are arranged for enjoyment of life and mastery of life through drama, music, handcrafts, good meals and physical activity.

- Coping with life in a good psychosocial environment.
- Joy of life in play, exploration, learning and social interaction.
- Drama, music and handcrafts as an important part of the children's learning environment and educational arena.
- Good health with physical activity, body awareness and body control. • Good meals of your own chef. All food and drinks are served every day.

Irimi Johnsen Kyrifidis

With MA in Drama and theatre from NTNU has worked with exploring themes of migration, identity, belonging, and the climate crisis through storytelling and devised theatre. She is working at Leangen Kulturbarnehage with a focus on aesthetic learning processes. Together with her colleagues she explores how creative, sensory, and artistic experiences can support children's development, participation, and expression.

Annamária Zemková

She is a master's student at KiT (Kunstakademiet i Trondheim) which is also part of the NTNU. Working with drawing, posters, and installation. Her practice explores the relationship between humans and bird (animals), through visual language, often focusing on themes of transformation, coexistence, and urban environments. Through illustration and posters with street art undertone, she investigate how boundaries between human and birds can shift.
