

Social sciences and Humanities in Horizon Europe

- What is the current state and how can you get involved?

The Norwegian Network for the promotion of social sciences and humanities in Horizon Europe (NOSSH) invites all researchers and other interested parties to an online event on 17 June 2021 09:00-11:00. Within this brief program, we aim to:

- present opportunities for social sciences and humanities in the new framework program
- discuss how researchers from our fields can increase their opportunities for involvement in European projects.

Participants both from Norway and abroad are most welcome!

REGISTRATION

09:00-10:00 Interviews and presentations

- Welcome (Mari Sundli Tveit, Director, Research Council of Norway)
- Introduction to Horizon Europe & the main opportunities for SSH (National contact points Øydis Hagen & Tobias Bade Strøm, RCN)
- European Alliance for Social Sciences and Humanities Director Gabi Lombardo
- Lessons learned from H2020 project experience – Senior research fellow Jan-Paul Brekke (Institute of Social Research) and Professor Christian Klöckner (NTNU)
- SHAPE-ID (Project manager Doireann Wallace)
- The new Norwegian SHAPE-initiative (Professor Aurora Hoel)

10:00-11:00 Discussion

Questions and other comments from the audience, with feedback from the presenters from the first session